

DELIVERING COMPELLING PRESENTATIONS: TIPS AND LESSONS FROM TOP PUBLIC SPEAKERS

精彩演講的秘訣： 頂尖演說家的技巧與經驗分享

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

講者: 劉宇挺 特聘教授兼副
教務長
國立臺灣師範大學英語學系
YEU-TING LIU
DISTINGUISHED
PROFESSOR & ASSOCIATE
VICE PRESIDENT OF NTNU

Distinguished Professor Liu is dedicated to advancing English language teaching and learning, with a particular focus on cognitive aspects of technology-assisted language learning. He earned his Ph.D. from Teachers College, Columbia University, and has been teaching in the English Department at NTNU for over 17 years. In addition to his role as the Director of the Center for Academic Literacy, he also serves as the Vice Provost for the University, where he contributes to the strategic direction and academic leadership of NTNU.

In this talk, we will explore proven strategies to enhance your presentation skills. Drawing inspiration from renowned public speakers, this session offers practical tips on how to engage your audience, communicate your message effectively, and leave a lasting impression. Additionally, we'll provide techniques to overcome stage fear, helping you present with greater confidence and ease. Whether you're a novice or an experienced presenter, you'll gain valuable insights to elevate your speaking abilities and deliver presentations with confidence and impact.

21 NOV

TIME: 14:00-16:00

PLACE: 國立政治大學 達賢圖書館
7F 羅家倫講堂 (線上講座屆時會
寄發連結) LO CHIA-LUEN HALL,
7F OF THE DAH HSIAN SEETOO
LIBRARY, NCCU (OR ONLINE)